

The MASMAN Communications Srl is a modern company that operates in the field of communication since 1999 from an idea by Massimo Manfregola. Care of the organization and development of events related to the fields of culture, sport and those of industrial technology. Actively working in the publishing industry, television, radio and in the telematic. In order to adopt solutions and strategies for absolute success in what are the main areas dedicated to the media, the MASMAN Communications Srl employs a staff of highly qualified and skilled staff can handle with the utmost professionalism all types of projects related corporate communications and marketing at both the national and the international territory. The efficiency of the organizational core is assured by the use of advanced technologies in the field of modern computer systems.

http://www.facebook.com/MasmanCommunication http://www.youtube.com/user/MasmanVideo https://plus.google.com/110552690420082829955/posts

Massimo Manfregola, is a journalist with experience in the field of communication of the printed paper and television. He collaborates with numerous national publications in the field of motor sport. He is the creator and editor in chief of the newspapers freepress, Check-In and Motorsnews. Sector management of the marketing, public relations and press offices for companies (Rai Movie - 01 Distribution), with the organizing and managing events and television productions on-board (Flight Motornews) for airlines such as Alitalia. He has worked with national newspapers like Rai Sport channel, TMC (now LA7), SportItalia, Group Sitcom, Corriere dello Sport-Stadio and Autosprint.

Twitter follow@masman007

http://it.linkedin.com/pub/massimo-manfregola/4a/338/862 https://plus.google.com/110552690420082829955/posts

e-mail: masman@masman.com

